NOTICE

In April 2020, University Grants Commission has issued guidelines for examinations and academic calendar for the Universities in view of COVID-19 pandemic and subsequent lockdown. In view of these guidelines and subsequent approval by Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Ph.D students whose maximum period for submission of Ph.D Thesis as per present rules of the University is expired/expiring during the Corona pandemic period, are allowed to submit their Ph.D. Thesis, including completion of pending formalities, within six months from the date of expiry of regular prescribed period. The extension of six months may also be granted for those eligible students who are yet to submit their Ph.D Thesis.

The concerned candidates are requested to submit an application for this special relaxation along with duly completed undertaking in the prescribed format.

Undertaking by the candidate to obtain six months special relaxation for thesis submission due to COVID-19 epidemic
(on plain paper)

I wish to submit that I have completedyear.....months of my Ph.D. registration on.....(date) and my Ph.D. thesis was ready for "Draft Thesis Presentation" in the Departmental Committee during lockdown period due to COVID-19 epidemic. Further, I undertake that I will submit my Ph.D. thesis within six months (from the date of end of current extension) to Dean, P.G. Office, MLSU as per UGC April, 2020 guidelines for COVID-19 epidemic period. In case I fail to submit my thesis within six months (COVID-19 epidemic based special extension) to University then I will be fully responsible and my extension period for thesis submission will be governed as per existing rules of University.
